

^b
UNIVERSITÄT
BERN

Prof. Dr. Luca Di Blasi
Länggassstr. 51
CH 3012 Bern
luca.diblas@theol.unibe.ch

Short-Term Postdoctoral Researcher (80 %)

(IRC Religious Conflicts and Coping Strategies)

The researcher will support and coordinate the preparation of a grant application for an international research project on epistemological and religious foundations of the ecological crisis, with an inter-epistemological and inter-religious approach and a theoretical focus on environmental and/or postcolonial studies and critical theory. Start of employment: 1st October 2021. The contract is limited to 8 months. If the grant application is successful, the employment may be extended.

Tasks

- Support in the preparation of a research grant application
- Literature and bibliographical research
- General research support
- Support in preparation of publications

Requirements

- Ph.D. in philosophy or other relevant fields of the humanities or social sciences, with theoretical orientation
- Experience in preparing grant applications
- Dedicated to think and work independently and across conventionally separate disciplines, with strong social skills
- Strong English and basic German language skills

We offer

- Work experience with established scholars in developing innovative and intellectually challenging research in an international environment
- Integration into ongoing research projects in comparative epistemology, critical theory, conflict studies, religious studies
- Flexible work hours and place according to agreement
- Gross Salary around CHF 6'400,-/month

Application and Contact

Please send your application in one PDF file (including letter of motivation, CV, writing sample, certificates and contact details of two referees) by 29th August, 2021, to: luca.diblas@theol.unibe.ch
Interviews will be held shortly after.